

Engaging, empowering and investing in Wajarri Yamaji People's future

Quality Policy

Wajarri Yamaji Aboriginal Corporation RNTBC (WYAC) is the Prescribed Body Corporate (PBC) for the Wajarri Yamaji People of the Gascoyne/Murchison region of Western Australia. The Wajarri Yamaji native title determination is one of the largest in Western Australia.

WYAC works in collaboration with the trustee, Winja Wajarri Barna Limited (WWBL), to deliver positive social economic, educational and cultural outcomes for Wajarri Yamaji people. Wajarri Enterprises Limited (WEL) is the business arm of the group. These entities are referred to as the Wajarri Group.

The Wajarri Group are committed to promoting and providing a workplace culture where quality outcomes match or exceed our members and client's expectations and are a fundamental aspect of our day to day operations. In order to achieve this commitment Wajarri Group will;

- plan, deliver and monitor appropriate resources including people, training, plant, equipment and infrastructure to achieve the Wajarri Groups objectives and fulfil our members and client's expectations,
- implement processes for planning, management, client relationship and operational controls including supplier and subcontractor management, to satisfy the Wajarri Groups members and client's requirements,
- consult with members, clients and stakeholders to identify their changing needs and expectations and communicate the importance of meeting these needs appropriately across the organisation,
- communicate to managers, supervisors and employees their responsibilities towards realisation of our products and services,
- record and investigate non-conformities within our operations and implement actions and, where appropriate, programs for future prevention,
- take reasonable steps to identify, eliminate and minimise risks,
- develop a culture which supports compliance, reporting and distribution of quality critical information,
- engage employees and subcontractors that are appropriately qualified and competent to perform their duties and support them with education, awareness and training as necessary,
- implement, review, maintain and continuously improve our management systems and practices to meet our business and client's needs, and
- comply with legal, client and other obligations to which we subscribe, relating to quality.

All persons who work for the Wajarri Group have a personal responsibility for implementing this Policy.
